

Re: The removal of the State of Wisconsin "No Call List." The only way we should accept this change is if we receive the bankers home phone numbers given to us with every phone call we receive. I bet they have non-published phone numbers. Maybe the Federal government should adapt the Wisconsin plan, they did with "Welfare reform". I have no problem with a return message.

Thank you,
Ray Luczak